COURSE DESCRIPTION
This course examines the history of Latin America’s place in the “Cold War”. The course covers the origins of the Cold War, focuses on the impact of the competition between the United States and the Soviet Union on Latin America from 1947 and 1991, and briefly considers the legacy of the Cold War in Latin America in the 1990s and beyond. A central question is why the Cold War affected Latin America so profoundly even though the Soviet Union never posed a military threat in the region (outside the island of Cuba). The course will explore the motives and consequences of the U.S. government’s actions to counter the perceived Communist threat, as successive administrations expanded intelligence gathering, increased military and economic aid, backed anti-communist governments in Latin America, and used U.S. troops in direct military interventions. We will focus on key conflicts that highlight the logic of overt and covert action: (1) the coup against the Arbenz government in Guatemala in 1954; (2) the Cuban Missile Crisis in 1962; (3) the Dirty Wars under Latin American military regimes (1970s); (4) Cuba’s military engagement in Africa (1960s to 1980s); and (5) the counterinsurgency wars in Central America (1980-1986).

LEARNING OBJECTIVES
Students will get an overview of the events and major interpretations of the Cold War in Latin America. Students will refine their analytical writing skills in the long papers, develop research skills for the research paper, and sharpen critical thinking skills in the short exercises (source analysis; summarizing an argument as outline; concise presentation of information).

PREREQUISITES
There are no prerequisites. No previous knowledge of Latin America history is assumed. All course materials are in English - knowledge of Spanish or Portuguese is not required.

GRADING
1) Map Quiz 80 points
2) Short assignments 120 points
3) Two essays on books @ 100 pts. each 200 points
4) Research paper 200 points
5) Participation 100 points
6) Midterm Exam 150 points
7) Final exam 150 points
TOTAL 1,000 points
For the final grade, 900 to 1000 points are an ‘A’, 800-899 a ‘B’, 700-799 a ‘C’, 600-699 a ‘D’, and less than 600 points an ‘F’.
History majors should take note that no grade lower than "C" may be counted toward the 33 hour requirement.

COURSE POLICIES

Quizzes/Exams
1) Map Quiz: A map quiz will be given on Wednesday, September 9). You will place geographic features in Latin America (from a pre-distributed list) on a blank map.
2) Midterm Exam: Covers the first half of the course. It will include essays and identifications.
3) Final Exam: Covers the second half of the course. It will include essays and identifications.

(NOTE: There will be no make-up quizzes or exams other than in cases of medical emergencies documented with a doctor’s note.)

Short Assignments: Students will complete three short assignments such as source analyses, fact sheets, chapter summaries, or pop quizzes (40 points each). I prefer not to give pop quizzes, but WILL do so if I notice that students are not doing the reading.

Book Essays: Students will write essays on the books by Cullather (Week 5) and Gleijeses (Week 9). The instructor will hand out questions/topics for these papers. These book essays have to be between 1400 and 1600 words in length (about five pages of text in 12-font, double-spaced, with one-inch margins on all four sides). Late essays can be turned in until 48 hours after the due date at a penalty of one full grade (10 points).

Research Paper: You will write a research paper on an aspect of the Dirty Wars in Latin America. A handout with instructions will be handed out on October 19. You will submit a bibliography on October 30. The research paper will be due on the day of your presentation (Week 13). It cannot be submitted late. The paper has to have at least 2000 words of text, not counting the required references (footnotes or endnotes) and the works cited page.

Participation: Counts for 10% of the grade. Note: Simply being in class does not earn you participation credit. You do have to contribute to class discussion!!

Attendance: Class attendance is expected. Roll will be taken, and students are responsible for signing the roll sheet. Absences due to documented emergencies will be considered excused (i.e. do not count for attendance). Bonus and penalty points will be allocated as follows:

<thead>
<tr>
<th>Absences</th>

BEWARE of PLAGIARISM!!

PLAGIARISM means representing the writings or ideas of another person as your own. It is always unethical, frequently illegal, and raises serious doubts about the personal integrity of the offender.

PLAGIARISM includes:

a) Copying or paraphrasing information from a book, article, website, or other source without acknowledging the source of the quote or original idea. (Minor alterations to the copied or paraphrased text will not resolve the problem; it is still plagiarism.)

b) Letting someone else write even part of your paper for you

Avoid PLAGIARISM by:

a) Using quotation marks

b) Providing citations after quotes and paraphrased ideas.

PENALTY for PLAGIARISM: A plagiarized assignment will automatically receive 0 points. The student will also forfeit any extra credit opportunity (including the attendance bonus) for the entire course. I reserve the right to impose further penalties (e.g. an automatic ‘F’ for the course) and/or report cases of plagiarism to the college.

USE the WRITING CENTER!!

If you encounter difficulties writing papers, take your draft to the WRITING CENTER (Suite 310 of the J. D. Williams Library). The staff will also be able to address any concerns about plagiarism.
